"What I like about Fletcher Moorland is you really take the hassle out of managing repairs. Your job tracking website is a wonderful tool, no more searching for quotes and chasing up on repair deliveries."

An innovative approach to modern maintenance needs

- Check the progress of your repairs online
- No more waiting on the phone for information
- Repair information is live 24 hours a day
- Access quotes, repair reports and invoices from one source
- See when repairs are due back to your site
- View images of your equipment for ease of identification
- Find current and past orders using your reference information
- Relevant information for engineering, stores, maintenance, purchasing and accounts departments
- All information is held on our secure web server
